

BERA Conference 1976 - Westfield College, University of London

Tuesday 7th September

16.00 Registration

18.00 – 19.00 Dinner

19.30 – 21.00 Opening address: Changing objectives in educational research; a tricentennial romp (Prof H Armytage)

Wednesday 8th September

09.15 – 10.15 The role of research in relation to the problems faced by a Local Authority and its schools (Dr M Shipman, Head of ILEA research and study group)

11.00 – 12.30 Replies and comments from Colin Lacey (Research and development consultant at the Schools Council), and John Wilson (University of Oxford). Summing up by Kenneth Antcliffe (Director of Education for Liverpool)

13.00 Lunch

14.15 Symposia in parallel

- Symposium A: Curriculum dissemination and diffusion
- Symposium B: User perceptions of the educational system

17.00 AGM

Thursday 9th September

09.30 – 12.30 Symposia in parallel

- Symposium C: Illuminative practice and research in education – how it works in practice
- Symposium D: Readers, reading and texts

14.30 Symposia in parallel

- Symposium E: Spoken and written language in the early years (0-8)
- Symposium F: Teacher groups in educational research and development

18.00 – 19.00 Vice presidential address: 'Pitfalls in educational research' Prof Jack Wrigley

Friday 10th September

09.30 – 12.30 Symposia in parallel

- Symposium G: Resources for local research: information and other back up
- Symposium H: Members papers

12.30 Conference ends